Pick out 3 different people from the video - state their job and summarise what they did on the film

The film makers talked a lot about scale - making sure the characters and the sets were all the right size.

They did research and created concept art to make sure things were a good fit.

Now it's your turn to become a concept artist!

Create concept art for what a Toy Story scene would look like in your classroom.

Use a real toy for scale, take some pictures for reference and then draw what your scene would look like.
